Tasting notes

Rather shy and retiring on the nose, but an explosion of apples, brioche and red berries on the palate. A very refined, long and elegant Dom Perignon, requiring at least another 5 years bottle age to show of its best - a classic in the making

Reviews

There's a high-toned minty graphite accent to the aroma, with a citric edge on the palate. The structure is overlaid with lemon and bread dough notes. This is tight and crisp on the finish, so break out the sole or shellfish, or wait a few years. Best from 2008 through 2020. Wine Spectator
