Reviews

The 2013 Brunello di Montalcino is a dark and steady wine that reveals pulses of black cherry, blackberry, prune, spice and leather. The overall effect is harmonious and balanced. Instead of aromatic high points or accents, the bouquet offers a very smooth and dependable performance. There are no wrinkles on this smooth surface, and maybe that makes the wine a tad less exciting than the others.

89 Points, Monica Larner, The Wine Advocate

Pale ruby. Minty and fresh. Nicely understated. Easy. Relaxed. Drink 2018-2023.

16 Points, Jancis Robinson MW

Dense and layered, showcasing berries, cedar and fresh herbs. Some leaves. Full and dense with silky tannins and a long and flavorful finish. Juicy and well-crafted. Drink now.

93 Points, James Suckling
