Tasting notes

(95% Nebbiolo, 5% Barbera) Again deep colour, bur nose more of prune fruit, even hints of young vintage port! As with Costa Russi low key new wood influences. On the palate an amazing attack of dark fruits and intense minerality with touches of lavender and tar. Again, beautiful framework of fine grained tannins and ripe, grippy acidity. Really big, black fruit, pastille middle palate - this is slightly more dense than the Costa Russi overall, with more glycerol. Long, long licquorice, lavender and mineral finish - absolute purity, intensity and poise. Will last for 30 years or more! Brilliant.

Reviews

Gaja's 2004 Sorì Tildìn floats on the palate. It is the most nuanced of these single-vineyard offerings, with gorgeous notes of tar, smoke, roses, violets, sweet toasted oak and earthiness that emerge from the glass in a counterpoint of sublime elegance and stunning purity. It possesses superb length and elegant, silky tannins to round out the finish. This extraordinary Sorì Tildìn will require at least a few years of bottle age, but it is destined to be one of the vintage's legendary wines. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024. Robert Parker
