Tasting notes

Dynamic and mineral-packed, this is one of the very greatest whites that we tasted anywhere. Patrick's parcel lies on the west-facing sector of the hill and a combination of that and the high elevation has led to a wine of purity and precision with layers of tangerines, smokiness and pith. Tinglingly nervy but with a rich, powerful character this is quite simply a wonderful wine. Drink from 2011.

Reviews

"(from 50+ year old vines situated in Pernand). A discreet touch of toast frames the green fruit, apple and pear aromas that complement perfectly the powerful and well-muscled flavors that are rich, round and sweet as well as blessed with ample amounts of palate staining dry extract on the linear, driving and explosive finish. Patience will be required however." 2012+. Tasted by: Allen Meadows Additional Tasting
