Tasting notes

A Bâtard with imposing presence, this begins with soft stone fruits, building quickly into something far more expansive, combining cream, almond and a little vanilla and releasing the aromas across the palate with considerable power. The volume in the mouth is considerable and combined with the impressive energy of the wine, this creates a memorable experience. This may not win awards for subtlety but it won't leave you guessing either!

About the producer

Domaine Fontaine-Gagnard, in Chassagne-Montrachet, was formed in 1985 when Richard Fontaine married Laurence Gagnard. Céline Fontaine started working with her father in 2007 and has taken over the running of the Domaine. The wines are extremely elegant, complex and precise. The estate covers 12 ha of vineyard and 22 appellations, many of which are the most sought after in Burgundy.
