Tasting notes

Anne-Claude confesses to a big weak spot for this wine ? it's easy to see why. Lacy, pure and perfumed, this is engaging straight away, with real intensity and wonderful depth. The fruit is beautifully detailed with ripe citric fruits combining with a more crunchy apple character. The structure is of compacted layers, each one capable of revealing different nuances and flavours over time. On the mid-palate, there is a more mineral aspect already emerging, adding a serious side to the more playful aromatics. On the finish the wine shows total class, subtle and harmonious with nature captured at its most magnificent.

About the producer

The vision of Anne-Claude Leflaive in the 1990s took this Puligny Montrachet Domaine to the heights of white wine production, not only in Burgundy but in the rest of the world. Today, her nephew Brice de La Morandière - who has had a successful career running multinational companies - continues her philosophy of organic, biodynamic viticulture, bringing Chardonnay grapes to their best possible expression in Grand Cru and Premier Cru climates, where the terroir has been restored to health by natural practices.
