Tasting notes

A serious, imposing nose of deep cherry, cassis and damson with perfumes of rose and violet. On the palate, this is deep, powerful, concentrated with high, juicy tannins, a mineral core and fresh acidity despite the obvious ripeness. This is top-quality wine-making, so good in fact that you could almost drink it now, but if you can resist it will only get better and better. Duroux has captured the terroir and the vintage perfectly- watch out M. Pontallier! Drink 2019-2030+. 41CS:52M:7PV 18.5
