Tasting notes

A delicate wine on the nose with notes of violets, subtle red fruits and a hint of pepper and spice. The palate is slightly reserved at the moment but there is a lot of hidden depth supported by a fine backbone of tannins and an energetic freshness. This wine will need a few years in bottle before it reaches full expression.

About the producer

In 1997 Jean-Marc Millot took control of his own Domaine but it has taken a further decade to get to the level that he wants to be at. His style favours fruit-driven, fresh wines over wines of power and force. His wines have quickly become a well-kept secret amongst those who have discovered them.
