Tasting notes

Taillepieds can be severe and aloof and while this wine certainly has grandeur and old fashioned masculinity, it also manages to show dexterity and precision. Very much a wine of the soils rather than the fruits, notes of gunflint and crushed rock dominate the palate with gentle spiciness providing a counterpoint. Serious and noble with a long future ahead. Drink from 2016.

About the producer

This historic 15 hectare estate is without question the finest red wine estate in the Côte de Beaune. The legacy left by the late, great Jacques d'Angerville is being carried forward in the same authoritative, passionate and committed manner by his son, Guillaume, supported by his brother-in-law Rénaud de Villette and talented régisseur François Duvivier.
