Tasting notes

One of the outstanding whites of the vintage, Alix's Corton Charlemagne is intensely mineral on the nose with a linear flintiness and a tense core of chilled lemon. At this stage the palate is reluctant to show its full hand but the complexity and depth is more than apparent. Minerality is the most abundant character right now but the delicate creaminess on the finish and a gorgeous extract build an excellent structure. Drink from 2017.

About the producer

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.
