Tasting notes

From vines with an average of 55 years, this is a deeply flavoured wine with hints of lavender and dried, red fruits on the nose. The palate is full of dark, brambly fruit characters balanced by a fine structure and refreshing acidity. The flavours are a little restrained at the moment but this wine has plenty of depth and potential to age well. Drink from 2016.

About the producer

Romain Taupenot is one of the rising stars in Burgundy and is the 7th generation to continue the family tradition. Romain is a perfectionist who is always striving to achieve the very best and he has transformed his family Domaine over the last few years producing increasingly impressive wines. He uses organic methods and focuses on expressing pure fruit flavours which display each terroir. Oak is used judiciously to avoid dominating the wines. Romain's wines are refined and pure.
