Tasting notes

Perhaps the most expressive and open nose of all on the day, this is truly open for business but exhibiting plenty of control rather than letting it all hang out. There is breadth and density on the palate with a strong mineral backbone too but it is the extra elegance that really excites here. Already plenty to enjoy but with plenty more in store.

About the producer

The vision of Anne-Claude Leflaive in the 1990s took this Puligny Montrachet Domaine to the heights of white wine production, not only in Burgundy but in the rest of the world. Today, her nephew Brice de La Morandière - who has had a successful career running multinational companies - continues her philosophy of organic, biodynamic viticulture, bringing Chardonnay grapes to their best possible expression in Grand Cru and Premier Cru climates, where the terroir has been restored to health by natural practices.

*These wines are not available for non-UK based customers.
