Tasting notes

---

A delicious Puligny with lively citrus and yellow plum fruit aromas. The palate is charming and elegant with appealing, bright citrus flavours and lively stone fruits in the background with hints of brioche and subtle spices. On the finish there is a mouthwatering salty, mineral tang. This is a very approachable and balanced wine which will be lovely to drink from release. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

Domaine Blain-Gagnard, located in the village of Chassagne-Montrachet, was formed in 1980 when Jean-Marc Blain married Claudine Gagnard. The 9-hectare domaine, comprising two-thirds white and one-third red, boasts vineyards in some of the Côte de Beaune's most prestigious appellations. Jean-Marc, alongside his son Marc-Antonin, oversee a meticulous cellar where judicious use of new oak produces wines of remarkable purity and elegance. These wines are not only approachable in their youth but also possess exceptional aging potential.
