Tasting notes

This lieu-dit is located immediately to the south of the premier cru of Clos des Réas, a Gros family monopole, and captures the nuances of Vosne incredibly well for a village wine. The nose offers plenty of bright summer berries, framed with a touch of gravel and just a dusting of freshly ground black pepper. The lively palate is a bundle of positive energy with a core of crisp, ripe cherries, a lick of sweet spice and a beautiful clean finish of chilled blueberries and crushed stone. Clearly punching well above its weight! Drink from 2016.

About the producer

Domaine AF Gros is owned by Anne-Françoise who inherited vineyards in Savigny, Vosne-Romanée, Chambolle-Musigny, Echézeaux and Richebourg from her parents Jean and Jeanine Gros. Anne-Françoise's husband, François Parent, had a separate label, but from the 2018 vintage, both estates are under AF Gros. Their daughter, Caroline, and son, Mathias, have now taken charge of both estates and continue to make extremely classic, elegant wines with great ageing potential.
