Tasting notes

Complex aromas of wet stone, citrus, white flowers and mint. Fleshy white stone fruits explode on the palate with a long, concentrated and refreshing finish. Drink from 2018.

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
