Tasting notes

Exclusive to Armit Wines, this is full of crisp red cherries, juicy red plums and a touch of pomegranate on the nose. The palate expresses lively redcurrant and cassis tones alongside complex spice balanced by a strong backbone of acidity which keeps it fresh and lively but importantly all in perfect harmony. This attractive, integrated wine is a Faiveley monopole high on the slopes of Gevrey and we are very lucky to have the complete allocation as the vineyard is only 0.5 hectares. Drink from 2017.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
