Tasting notes

Vibrant and fresh with an attractive density of sweet, dark fruits, this is a real success in 2012. On the nose, delicate spice notes with hints of smoke complement the red plum and cassis characters. The palate has a lively acidity with crunchy redcurrant qualities and a vibrant finish. Drink from 2015.

About the producer

Spending any time with Nicolas Potel in Burgundy can't help but to make even the most ardent of critics a lifelong convert. Nicolas is another man of boundless energy but his approach is very organic, adhering to the natural rhythms wherever possible. Such an unforced, careful, natural and sensitive approach is reflected perfectly in his wine and Nicolas has brought a breath of fresh air to Burgundy over the last decade and more. Quite simply, he remains one of Burgundy's brightest talents.
