Tasting notes

This is a delightful, textured Nuits that appeals with its charm and fragrance rather than its grip and muscle. In 2012, there is of course an extra degree of concentration but the fruit still has a certain plushness, red in tone with accompanying spice and never ponderous or heavy. Drink from 2017.

About the producer

Domaine de Montille is one of Burgundy's greatest estates. The wines are made for ageing but in recent years, since Hubert's son Etienne has taken over, the Domaine has moved towards expressing greater aromatic potential in the wines. The Domaine has moved progressively towards organic and now biodynamic methods working in closer harmony with nature. The wines still benefit from ageing and develop an abundance of complexity as they mature.
