Tasting notes

Produced from equal parts of old Pinot Noir and Gamay vines, there is an impressive level of fruit on the nose with a lovely touch of sweet spice and savouriness. The palate displays a good mix of red and dark berries supported by a good structure of fine tannins and refreshing acidity resulting in a surprisingly complex experience and a long finish.

About the producer

Founded in 2014 by Frédéric and Chantal Lafarge, husband and wife at the iconic Burgundy estate Domaine Lafarge in Volnay, the domaine is located in Fleurie and has a total surface of around 4 hectares. Biodynamic farming, no use of new oak and the same quest of purity and reflection of terroir apply for their Beaujolais project. The vineyard is immaculate and include slope and old vines, a spectrum of different soils from pink granite to blue stone give identity to the different parcels. In true Burgundian style, there is no use of carbonic maceration in the estate.
