Tasting notes

The set is completed via a virtuoso Chevalier that opens with an exotic array of perfumes, recalling Oriental spices and scents, quite beyond the range of the preceding wines. You can feel the ripeness in the wine but it has such control over its performance you cannot help but be carried by it as it moves, twists and turns, ever graceful and weaving patterns that only it can see. Subtle, engaging and endlessly fascinating, a wine that leaves behind the task of empirical assessment and connects to a less tangible, more spiritual dimension. Drink from 2019.

About the producer

The vision of Anne-Claude Leflaive in the 1990s took this Puligny Montrachet Domaine to the heights of white wine production, not only in Burgundy but in the rest of the world. Today, her nephew Brice de La Morandière - who has had a successful career running multinational companies - continues her philosophy of organic, biodynamic viticulture, bringing Chardonnay grapes to their best possible expression in Grand Cru and Premier Cru climates, where the terroir has been restored to health by natural practices.
