Reviews

I don't believe in hands-off winemaking because I believe that growing grapes and making wine by nature is pretty hands-on, but when I see and taste good grapes, I feel a responsibility if not an obligation to stay out of the way. That is the case here. The 2014 Potter Valley Pinot Noir is 50% Pommard and 50% 115 from the certified organic and biodynamic Vecino Vineyard in Potter Valley. Winemaker

About the producer

One of the most original thinkers in Californian winemaking, Kenny Likitprakong started The Hobo Wine Company as a deliberately itinerant winemaker concentrating on acquiring very specific parcels of grapes, timing harvests perfectly and vinifying naturally. While he has now settled in a permanent bunkhouse for the fermentation in Santa Rosa, he keeps a fluid approach to his wines. This incredibly thrilling range is an invitation to explore the various, maybe lesser-known, terroir of Sonoma and is a testament to Kenny's deep understanding of terroir and his precise winemaking.
