Tasting notes

The geological elements of the soil in this site, makes Lamm unique and guarantees expressive, elegant Grüner Veltliner. The almost velvety nose of subtle sweet spice and profound yellow fruit aromas combines with a smokiness reminiscent of bees wax. The palate offers texture, transparent and balanced honey melon flavours and just a touch of residual sugar. The finish is long, with notes of tobacco and hints at a very good potential for ageing.

Reviews

Full, almost velvety nose with subtle sweet spice and profound yellow fruit aromas, smoky, reminiscent of bees wax; deliciously juicy, supple texture, transparent and balanced, honey melon flavors, a touch of residual sugar, very long finish with notes of tobacco, very good ageing potential.
