Reviews

Tua Rita's 2014 Perlato del Bosco is a very pretty wine for the year. Dried flowers, mint and sweet tobacco are pushed forward. In 2014, the Perlato del Bosco doesn't have its typical breadth and volume, but it has good Sangiovese varietal character and depth, not to mention lovely persistence. The Perlato is a telling example of what was possible in 2014 among modestly priced wines. As good as the 2014 is, I would prefer to drink it sooner rather than later.

About the producer

Founded in 1984, Tua Rita was instrumental in establishing the 'cult' status of the earliest Super Tuscans. Nestled in the 'metalliferous hills' of the Maremma in the coastal region of Tuscany, the original plot of 2 hectares has now grown to 30 and Tua Rita have carved out a reputation for being some of the best producers of Cabernet and Merlot in Tuscany. Today, second generation winemaker Stefano Frascolla continues to push the boundaries of Italian wine, experimenting with new varieties and techniques, and recent releases of these wines are the best they have ever been.
