Tasting notes

Charming nose of violets and sweet morello cherries. A touch of sous bois and wild strawberries on the slightly more serious palate offers a clue of things to come. Nice fresh mineral backbone and delicate spice compliments the firm yet sweet tannins on the long finish. There is a lot more to come from this wine. Drink from 2020.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
