Tasting notes

Deeply mineral, layered nose with floral aromatics which mingle seamlessly with distinct notes of green apples and almonds. The palate stays true to the nose with pretty blossoms alongside subtly moreish hints of vanilla. There is ample richness and weight held together by a keenly focused line of acidity. This is augmented by a lovely matchstick character that adds further nuance and depth. A long and complex array of flavours is carried through perfectly onto the finish with fresh minerality and great structure. An outstanding wine from this legendary site.

About the producer

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.
