Reviews

(from several different lieux-dits, 30% of which is from Brélanche with major contributions from Les Tremblots and Grands Champs). A pretty and airy nose offers up notes of apple, pear, acacia blossom and both lemon and orange peel scents. There is once again fine volume and intensity to the medium-bodied flavours that possess markedly better complexity on the notably tighter finish that is shaped by moderately firm citrus-tinged acidity.

89-91 Points, Burghound

About the producer

The vision of Anne-Claude Leflaive in the 1990s took this Puligny Montrachet Domaine to the heights of white wine production, not only in Burgundy but in the rest of the world. Today, her nephew Brice de La Morandière - who has had a successful career running multinational companies - continues her philosophy of organic, biodynamic viticulture, bringing Chardonnay grapes to their best possible expression in Grand Cru and Premier Cru climates, where the terroir has been restored to health by natural practices.
