Tasting notes

An expressive, concentrated and intense expression of Sauvignon Blanc, Champs Libres shows an incredible array of citrus, fresh pear, musk and white peach. The density of the palate is perfectly balanced by a lively acidity and precise fruit and minerality. An incredible expression of Bordeaux Blanc that is simply a must have for all Chateau Lafleur collectors and Bordeaux lovers alike. Armit Wines

About the producer

Nestled next door to Pomerol's Petrus, Château Lafleur measures a mere 4.5ha, planted almost exactly with half Bouchet (Cabernet Franc) and half Merlot. Since the Guinaudeau family took control of production, an already highly regarded cru has reached greater heights, with more obsessive precision of selection and timing of picking, as well as more nuanced use of barrels. Combining their mineral expression of Merlot, with the perfume and complexity of Bouchet (Cabernet Franc) the Guinaudeau family has managed to create some of the most elegant, long-lived and collectible wines in Bordeaux.
