About the producer

One of the most well-established Châteaux in the Bordeaux appellation of Saint-Émilion, Château Pavie went through a huge period of change when purchased by the current owner Gérard Perse in 1998. Located on the top of the 'Limestone plateau' of St Emilion, Pavie was elevated from Premier Grand Cru Classe "B" to "A" in 2012 and the wine has since reached an icon status. Pavie is also the largest of all the Premier Cru Classe A vineyards at 42 hectares. The vineyards are farmed using sustainable management techniques. Part of the goal at Château Pavie is to produce wine from ripe grapes and low yields.
