Reviews

"Floral aromas of rose and violet mingle with ripe red berry, truffle and leather in this perfumed red. Elegant and firmly structured, the linear palate offers juicy Morello cherry, crushed raspberry, star anise and ground clove before a mineral finish evoking rust. Taut, polished tannins provide support. It's less austere than in cooler years but still offers years of pleasure. Drink 2025-2032" 95 points, Wine Enthusiast

"Daide Fregonese's 2017 Barolo Prapo is a powerful, blurry wine. A blast of dark cherry, sage, menthol, liquorice, game and tobacco hits the palate as this potent, muscular Barolo shows off its Serralunga personality. I would give the 2017 a few years to soften. Drinking window: 2024-2032" 93 points, Antonio Galloni, Vinous

About the producer

A childhood dream finally becoming a reality - that's what Davide Fregonese realised when he set up Bugia Nen. With the help of Davide Rosso, he found a few hectares in one of Barolo's most prized terroir, Serralunga d'Alba and decided to embark on this new adventure. The particularity of Prapo' and Cerretta make for tense, long-lived, pure expressions of Nebbiolo which are an incredible delight to unravel in the glass. Only on his second vintage, one can already see the realised potential of this superstar in the making.
