Tasting notes

First vintage under Lynch Bages ownership. Classical Pauillac with sweet fruit, concentrated and structured. Carefully used oak gives structure.

Reviews

This is very structured and serious. Full-bodied, tannic and powerful. Boom. This is one of the best Haut-Batailley in years. From the new owners, who also own Lynch-Bages.

94-95 Points, James Suckling

The 2017 Haut Batailley, which is matured in 60% new oak for 18 months, is clearly more sophisticated than the second wine, polished by the oak of course but underneath its intense blackberry and boysenberry fruit, quite floral with touches of violet and iris. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, a fine bead of acidity, well-integrated oak and very smooth polished finish that glides across the mouth. There is fine precision on the finish. Tasted twice with consistent notes.

90-92 Points, Neal Martin
