Reviews

The 2017 Chambolle-Musigny Village, a quarter of which comes from the Premier Cru Les Chatelot, has a tightly wound blackberry, briar and raspberry bouquet displaying fine mineralité. The palate is medium-bodied and quite linear, with grippy, slightly chalky tannin and a touch of spice toward the finish. There is good tension here, although I would like a tad more length. 88-90 Points, Neal Martin, Vinous Utterly seductive on the nose but a delicate scent not a heavy perfume of sweet red fruit. Notable freshness here and a lightness of touch on the palate. Weightless and subtle. Surprisingly long. 16.5/20 Points, Julia Harding, JancisRobinson.com

About the producer

Steady growth at this successful maison: Benjamin's own vineyard holdings have expanded to over 7 ha (plus 16 ha under contract). He is one of the best winemakers in Burgundy, and although he makes nearly fifty different wines, they are of an astonishingly high standard.
