Tasting notes

A gorgeous sweet wine from the tiny island of Pantelleria, south west of Sicily, this balances a rich, syrupy body with freshness and lift. Bright raisined fruit, caramelised nuts and a hint of dried herbs develop a slight orange zest quality on the finish. It's well balanced and so the sweetness isn't too overt, making this a wine that could pair up with many different food types, from figs with honey and greek yoghurt to creme brulee.

About the producer

Founded in 1984, Tua Rita was instrumental in establishing the 'cult' status of the earliest Super Tuscans. Nestled in the 'metalliferous hills' of the Maremma in the coastal region of Tuscany, the original plot of 2 hectares has now grown to 30 and Tua Rita have carved out a reputation for being some of the best producers of Cabernet and Merlot in Tuscany. Today, second generation winemaker Stefano Frascolla continues to push the boundaries of Italian wine, experimenting with new varieties and techniques, and recent releases of these wines are the best they have ever been.
