Tasting notes

“Quintessence of Ribera.” Ferran Canteles, Jancisrobinson.com

“The Fernández family has always had a well-deserved reputation for making reds that age gracefully in bottle and this Gran Reserva will certainly do that. Matured in new French wood, it's a focused, still youthful style with flavours of cassis and dark chocolate, plenty of chalky freshness and a layered, focused finish.”

About the producer

Fifty years ago, Alejandro Fernández and his wife Esperanza Rivera bought a 16th-century winery in Pesquera de Duero and made a commitment to reviving Ribera del Duero's ancient winemaking tradition. Together they produced Tinto Pesquera, a now-iconic winery described as “the ‘Spanish Pétrus’” by critic Robert Parker, and were instrumental in establishing these wines on the world stage. Made in a traditional style, these wines remain the standard by which all other Ribera del Duero are measured.
