Reviews

"This deep-ruby-colored wine proffers a bouquet of black cherry, milk chocolate, baking spices and flint. Bright fruit flavors of cherry and pomegranate are intertwined with posh tannins and notes of mocha, rose petal and aniseed, with a splash of Valencia orange that brightens the enduring finish."

About the producer

Fifty years ago, Alejandro Fernández and his wife Esperanza Rivera bought a 16th-century winery in Pesquera de Duero and made a commitment to reviving Ribera del Duero's ancient winemaking tradition. Together they produced Tinto Pesquera, a now-iconic winery described as "the 'Spanish Pétrus'" by critic Robert Parker, and were instrumental in establishing these wines on the world stage. Made in a traditional style, these wines remain the standard by which all other Ribera del Duero are measured.
