Tasting notes

"Floral and precise on the nose, the palate is thrillingly tense and saline, with notes of apple, apricot, lime and blossom. Enticing hints of honeysuckle, ginger and spice emerge with time in the glass. This offers great texture and depth of flavour but give it some time to come together - it has great potential."

Reviews

"The 2019 Chablis Les Preuses Grand Cru is the final vintage, as there has been a rearrangement in contracts that will see new crus in 2020. The well-defined bouquet features crushed stone, yellow flowers and a touch of apricot. The palate is well balanced with a slightly waxy entry and apricot and quince notes..."

About the producer

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.
