Reviews

"Brilliant straw. A gorgeous, layered, sweet peach and fragrant oak nose and with just a hint of hazelnut. Creamy and a little rich on the palate and gaining enormously in depth on the finish with salty mineral notes. Fantastic focus and length. Already irresistible but I wouldn't open this for at least another two to three years. Drink 2026-2036"

About the producer

The name Querciabella is perfectly fitting for this Chianti estate, surrounded by a sheltering forest of magnificent trees. Twenty-Two-Four marks the 50th vintage for the estate and the beginning of a new era with Mita Castiglioni, eldest daughter of Pepito, taking the reins. Under her leadership, Querciabella continues to be one of Italy's most innovative wineries, pioneering vegan and biodynamic practices. With the expertise of talented South African winemaker Manfred Ing, Querciabella consistently produces some of the purest expressions of Chianti Classico as well as Super-Tuscans with their acclaimed wines Camartina, Palafreno and one of Italy's most celebrated white wines, Batàr, alongside a range of exciting wines from the Maremma region.
