About the producer

Vini Noüe-Marinič, located in Brda, Slovenia, near the Italian border, is led by Charles-Louis de Noüe, nephew of Anne Claude Leflaive of Domaine Leflaive in Burgundy. His passion for discovering prestigious terroirs brought him to Brda in 2019, where he and partner Alis Marinič revitalised abandoned vineyards, preserving the region's genetic heritage through massale selection. The estate practices organic, chemical-free viticulture and is transitioning to biodynamics. With 140 hectares of vines, their vineyards are classified by a historical cru system. The estate produces wines under three brands: Domaine Vicomte de Noüe-Marinič, Erigone, and Marinič.
