Reviews

"Always a reliable and well-made Crianza, right from its first vintage in 1972 [...] An appealingly traditional style with strawberry, tobacco leaf and coconut flavours and a fresh, balanced finish."

About the producer

Fifty years ago, Alejandro Fernández and his wife Esperanza Rivera bought a 16th-century winery in Pesquera de Duero and made a commitment to reviving Ribera del Duero's ancient winemaking tradition. Together they produced Tinto Pesquera, a now-iconic winery described as "the 'Spanish Pétrus'" by critic Robert Parker, and were instrumental in establishing these wines on the world stage. Made in a traditional style, these wines remain the standard by which all other Ribera del Duero are measured.
