Reviews

"The 2021 Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo is a deep red color, so much so that you'd be hard-pressed to call it a Rosé. Crushed raspberries mix with hints of licorice, rose petals and a spritz of sea breeze to form its alluring bouquet. This is round and pliant with a gentle inner sweetness offset by citrus-tinged acidity, as sour melon and hard red candies resonate throughout. A hint of licorice lingers under an air of lavender, as the 2021 tapers off lightly structured yet full of lively energy. Cristiana Tiberio keeps telling me that she enjoys her Cerasuolo when it's young and fresh, yet I can't help but want to know what this beauty will look like in another year or two. That said, it's stunning already today."

About the producer

Located in the rugged Adriatic region of Abruzzo, Cristiana Tiberio's 30 ha estate has fast gained a reputation for her unapologetic take on what the wines of her region should be. Working with very old Trebbiano Abruzzese vines and with the indigenous varieties of Montepulciano d'Abruzzo and Pecorino, she has made it her mission to craft wines that display real purity and elegance with a very distinct character. The focus here is on combining indigenous varieties and unique terroir with state-of-the-art winemaking. The result is some of the purest and long-lived wines in the region - a future Italian icon.
