

2021 Trebbiano

Agricola Tiberio, Abruzzo, Italy

Product details

Vintage:	2021	Drinking:	2021 2026
Producer:	Agricola Tiberio	Alcohol:	13.50%
Region:	Abruzzo	Variety:	Trebbiano
Country:	Italy

Reviews

"The 2021 Trebbiano d'Abruzzo is intense yet fresh with vivid peach and young mango giving way to mint and white flowers. This washes across the palate with mineral intensity and pure orchard fruits, yet it comes across as round and soothing in feel. A salty flourish lingers, along with hints of lime, as the 2021 tapers off long and sapid. While not a wine for the ages, Cristiana Tiberio did a fabulous job dealing with the warm and dry conditions of the year."

Eric Guido, Vinous

"Deep straw yellow. A hugely expressive and deep nose, with sparkling minerality and deep citrus-fruit notes and with a hint of liquorice. On the palate, electrifying acidity cutting through ripe citrus fruit. Fantastic length and vibrancy. Hard to believe this came from a very dry, hot year."

17.5 points, Walter Speller, jancisrobinson.com

About the producer

Located in the rugged Adriatic region of Abruzzo, Cristiana Tiberio's 30 ha estate has fast gained a reputation for her unapologetic take on what the wines of her region should be. Working with very old Trebbiano Abruzzese vines and with the indigenous varieties of Montepulciano d'Abruzzo and Pecorino, she has made it her mission to craft wines that display real purity and elegance with a very distinct character. The focus here is on combining indigenous varieties and unique terroir with state-of-the-art winemaking. The result is some of the purest and long-lived wines in the region - a future Italian icon.

