Tasting notes

---

Beautifully pure, floral nose. On the palate a racy, energetic feel with nuances of stone fruit, acacia, brioche and underlying minerality. Lovely purity and vitality run like a vein through the wine, which has a long, crisp, slightly nutty finish. Exemplary Blanc de Blancs and great apéritif style.

Deliciously precise with high toned citrus fruit providing thrilling focus and definition. White flowers and crisp apple join chorus making this supremely refreshing as well as exceedingly moreish. This really speaks of the character of Cuis - the heart and soul of Gimmonnet's vineyard holdings.

Reviews

An immaculate blanc de blancs (100% chardonnay) champagne, arrow-like in its precision and focus, with an invigorating sourness and gentle touch of white blossom.

Victoria Moore, The Telegraph

Delicate texture but some autolysis on the nose. Real savour and refreshment. Beginning, middle and end to this proper wine - very much more interesting than many champagnes at the same price.

17 Points, Jancis Robinson MW

Aromatic, with apple blossom and ripe fruit notes, this well-cut blanc de blancs shows a chalky underpinning, layered with flavors of glazed nectarine, toasted almond and candied ginger. Long and creamy on the finish. Drink now through 2020. 800 cases imported.

92 Points, Wine Spectator
